HUMOR (hu'mər or hu'mer), n. 1. Ability to see or show the funny or amusing side of things: This is stated in the dictionary as the meaning of humor but you can't comprehend humor by just reading definitions. You must search for humor within people like Gina Nakamura and Jimmy Matsubayashi, because they have a talent that few others possess.

Most Athletic

Susan Fukunaga Lyndon Earley

Talk about most athletic, Lyndon Earley and Sue Fukunaga definitely are! Lyndon is one of our stand-outs in football and track. He is betterknown as SMOOTH, for his style of hurdling and high jumping. Sue can always be seen practicing for the game-winning shot because she is a twoyear letterwoman in basketball. Both Sue and Lyndon are dedicated to what they do, and have the drive to accomplish. They are true sports people and athletes.

And the ballots are in! The two most popular people in Gardena are Mauricio Gutierrez and Ululani Smith. Mauricio is the clean shaven, well behaved standout of our Mighty Mohican football team. He is truly the most popular, especially with the girls! Ululani is a two year Varsity Cheerleader and the present captain. She is also the Associated Student Body President and 1984 Homecoming Queen. Both are active in school and can be characterized as outgoing and fun to be with.

Friendly means kind and supportive, and who ould fit these descriptions better than Eric Milsap and Denise Rhine? With smiling faces and warm greetings, these two seem to radiate the charm which has gained them many friends throughout their years at Gardena High School. You can bet there is never a dull or lonely moment whenever Denise or Eric are around to share their friendly personalities.

Best Dressed

Kimberly Mitchell Andre Lilly

With wardrobes fit for celebrities, Andre Lilly and Kim Mitchell show our Dena campus what it takes to earn the title "Best Dressed." Showing sophistication in their choice of clothes, they are set for a successful career in fashion design and modeling. Abandoning the usual attire of jeans, t-shirts, and sweaters, Andre and Kim truly know how to "dress to impress."

Smiles, craziness, a lot of love, and laughter is what it took for Rodney Yamamoto and Sabrina Moore to receive this title. Winning the title "Best Looking" is quite an accomplishment and no two deserve it more than Fay Williams and Marcus Anderson. Both happy and flattered that their classmates nominated and voted for them, Fay and Marcus expressed modest replies to the congratulations they received. It is evident that their looks aren't just skin deep; they are just as beautiful inside. Years from now, while flipping through the yearbook, Marcus and Fay will certainly have something to remember and be proud of.

HOMECOMING COURT 1984

1984 HOMECOMING QUEEN, Ululani Smith and KING, Lyndon Earley.

PRINCESS Faye Williams and PRINCE Eric Ford.

PRINCESS Stephanie Gibson and PRINCE Keith Taylor.

PRINCESS Martha Colbert and PRINCE Michael Chapman.

PRINCESS Renee Hampton a PRINCE James Matsubayashi.

Radiant smiles . . . are all we see from Ululani and Lyndon as they take their final lap around the stadium.

(HOMECOMING '84)

The moon was full. Butterflies filled the insides of the ecstatic spectators. As the thundering of drums signified the beginning of half time.

The band played as the drill team, flags, and majorettes began to move. Flashes of green and white displayed the fine performance which was taking place.

The glitter of the antique cars caught the attention of the mohican spectators. The roaring of the crowd grew in magnitude. As the cars circled the arena, feelings of overwhelming joy filled the hearts of many, as the names of the Homecoming King and Queen were announced by Charles Stewart, our principal.

The honors were received by King, Lyndon Earley and Queen, Ululani Smith. By their expressions, we could tell that this would be a moment they would treasure in years to come. As the last of the vintage autos disappeared, the clouds momentarily covered the moon, signifying the end of Homecoming 1984.

With poise and charm . . . Renee, Martha, Stephanie, Faye, and Ululani await anxiously for the announcement of the 1984 Homecoming Queen.

With class and style . . . Lyndon, Eric, Keith, Mike, and James anticipate the announcement of the 1984 Homecoming King.

WE'RE GOING ALL THE WAY . . .

Bursting with energy and excitement . . . our cheerleaders prepare themselves for an awesome halftime ceremony.

Mighty Moes Mascot . . . Cindy cheers, "Dena city come alive!"

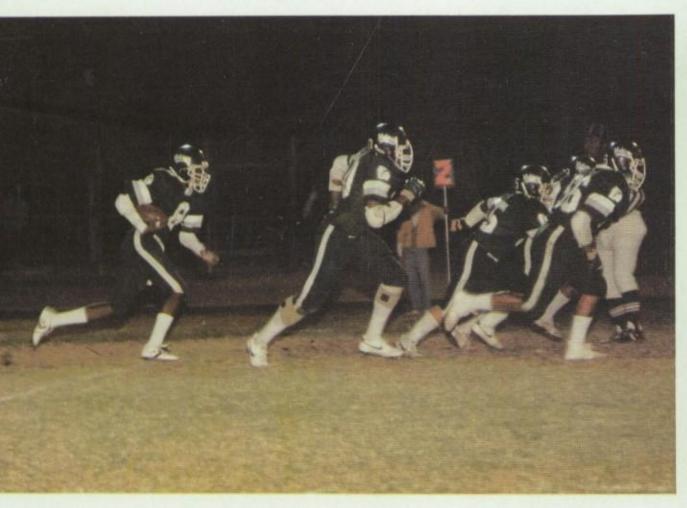

84 is the score . . . with the Drill Team and Band on the floor.

.. DENA STYLE

stin' loose . . . Runningback Pee Wee Smith eludes the Pathfinders with his quickness and agility.

vesome blocking!!! The Mighty Mohican linemen pave a clear road to the goal line for Eric Milsap.

(HOMECOMING)

This is Kid Mohican recapping tonight's games against the Fremont Pathfinders.

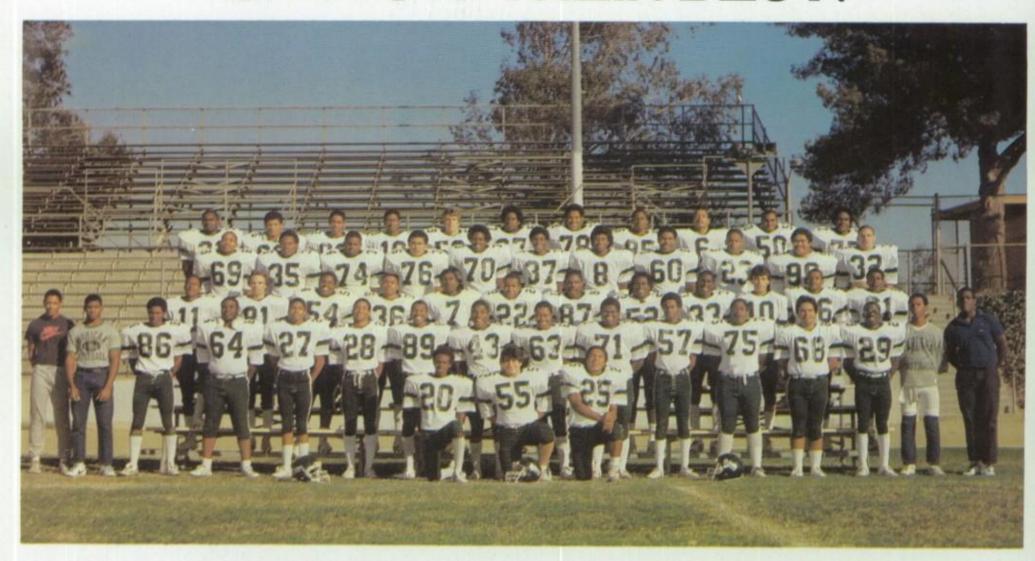

Coach Bill Partridge's Mohicans totally obliterated the Fremont Pathfinders handing Fremont a defeat of 41-7. There was no doubt whatsoever in the minds of the Mohicans that this would be a victorious game. Among the hero's of the day were Demonte Walker with three touchdowns and Lamar Clark who ran for 55 yards and scored from the 17th yard line. Fine performances were also turned in by Sean Wilson, quarterback, Tofili Eteuati, defensive tackle, Derrick Pettway, flanker, and Jon Frazier, line backer.

Once again, this is Kid Mohican saying "You haven't seen the last of the Mohicans!"

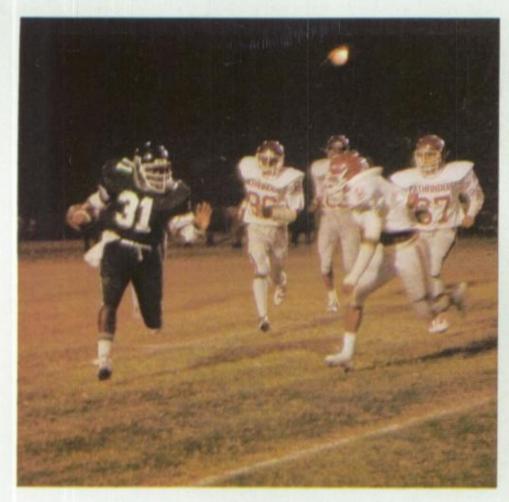

What's next? Asks Steven Hill as he anxiously awaits for his next assignment from Coach Hirayama.

HIGHLIGHTS OF VARSITY FOOTBALL

Our Mighty Moes, the Varsity football team lead by Coach Bill Partridge, Dale Hirayama, Doug Kamon, Sei Miyano, Lonnie Graffell, and Phillip Wu, led a 5-6 season. Playing in the highly competitive 4-A Pacific division Marine League, Gardena had excellent players such as Lyndon Earley, Eric Milsap, Mauricio Gutierrez, and Brian Brown. Being victorious at Granada Hills, Gardena advanced to the semi-play-offs with Carson.

Clear for a take-off #33 Pee Wee Smith finds a clear path to victory.

After a hard fought battle, it's time to congratulate the other team for a well-played game.

Cheerleaders...

Perking up the sad faces, cheering the atheletes on, and still having bundles of fun, cheerleaders jump, kick, and shake to bring out the "Dena Pride in all of us. The cheerleaders put in time and a half preparing for pep rallies and games and do more to motivate the crowd by painting posters, choreographing blood-rushing routines, and practicing long hours which all shines through when they step on stage and start showing their stuff. GHS Cheers are truly Dena's best!!

alie Ogawa . . . goes for another sure-fire shot as her defenders ail behind.

Speed and accuracy . . . Led by Kay Mochizuki, Gardena's J.V. team sinks another two points, showing that practice does make perfect!

"History in the making" ... During the past few years, the girls' J.V. teams had outstanding seasons. The group of '84-'85 should be added to the list for they had an undefeated record, demolishing each opponent by an average score of 30 points a game. Led by guards Shelley Tabuchi and Kay Mochizuki, the traditional running game kept them unbeatable. Rebounding came from center Luz Castillo. Coach Sandy Onamura proves that "those long hours of practice" really paid off. The J.V. team has their first play-off game on February 26. Their dominance should bring them to the finals. Good Luck!! GIA Junior Varsity Basketball

"In your face!!" says Lee Ann Goya as she sinks in an outside shot.

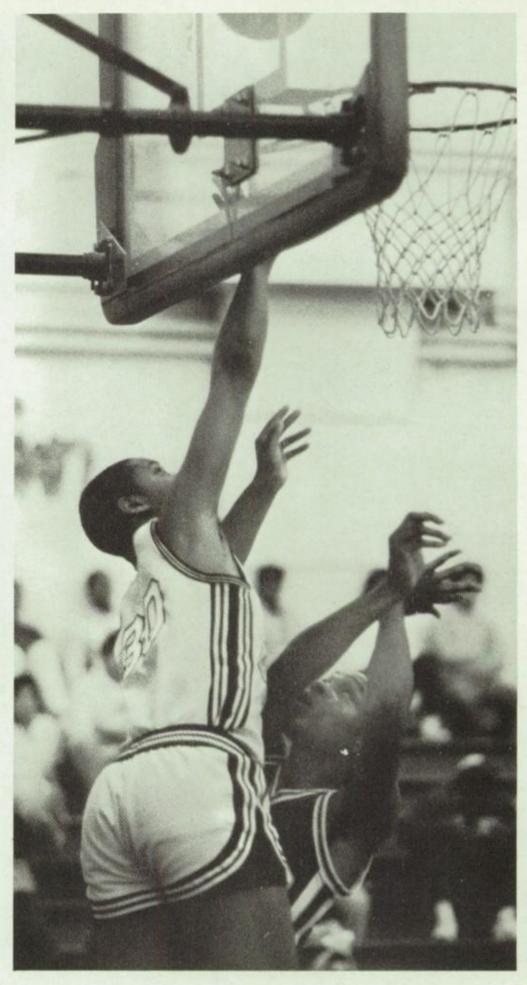

"Winning isn't everything"... The girls' varsity team, coached by Cheryl Nakata, ended their season with a 4-12 record. Led by the outside shooting from senior captain Sue Fukunaga, they were able to make the playoffs. From the long hours of practice to the intensity of those close games, the team never seemed to give up. It was hard work and dedication which kept them together. With only 3 graduating seniors, (Sue Fukunaga, Joni Suzuki, and Monica Brown), the majority of the team should be back next year for another "fight to the finish."

Many of you may think that softball is an easier sport than baseball, but you have to consider the difficulties of the rules and requirements.

The team consisted of mostly underclassmen with four returning seniors: Lainie Yasui, Ulu Smith, Charita Crawford, and Val Hattori. Second year pitcher Cheryl Acceret whipped into another great season with an average of 10 strike outs per game.

Under the direction of alumni Coach Cheryl Nakata, the team was ready to go for another strive toward victory. We have to give a lot of credit to Coach Nakata. While managing the girls' varsity basketball team and the girls' softball team, she also had to learn a lot about the responsibilities of motherhood ... Mr. Stewart is a graduate of Verdugo Hills High School and Occidental College. While in high school he was in a number of clubs and activities, such as the California Scholarship Federation, band, baseball, basketball, track, and student body president.

He enjoys classical music as well as opera. His favorite composers are Mozart and Beethoven. For a pastime he likes to read and exercise. Mr. Stewart has no plans to leave Dena, but he likes to change schools every five or six years.

As for academic progress, Mr. Stewart says, "It's hard to say about overall progress, but individually, from a teacher's point of view, most students have good potential."

Moving to the athletic department, he has attended all of the football games and basketball games — and — some baseball and tennis. "Dena has good strong teams and will make it to the playoffs and championships."

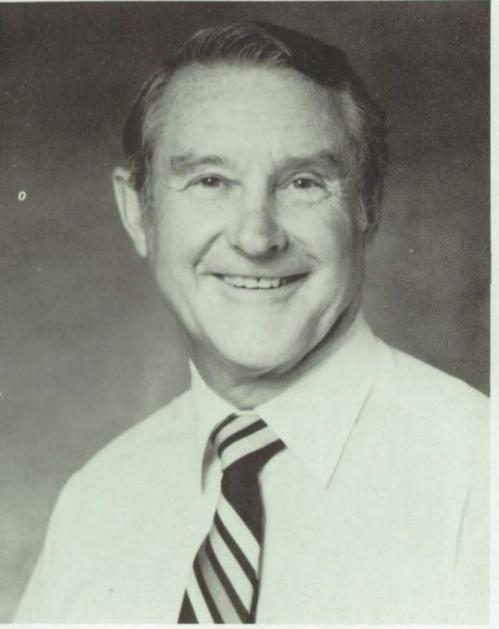

Mr. Stewart, hard, at work at his desk, is responsible for all programs and activities in the school. He represents this school in the community and in the Los Angeles Unified School District. He also represents Gardena High at various organizations and functions, such as, meetings of drug programs and businesses in the area. So you see, Mr. Stewart has a large sized load of responsibilities.

Mrs. Hall is a very busy person. She is in charge of student activities and budgets, which includes instructional materials, and cafeteria operations. She also handles the civic center permits, school news, daily bulletins, and textbooks among many other items. If you have ever walked into Mrs. Hall's office during school hours you will realize it is like the General Eisenhower command post on D-day.

Mr. Hustler is a very busy person. He is in charge of the I.D. pictures, locker inspection and athletic directing. He also handles security, emergency drills, custodial care and gardening, as well as youth services for the Y.M.C.A. So you see, Mr. Hustler has various tasks, and he somehow manages to keep up with all of them.

College Advisor

Mrs. Hironaka is head of the gifted, and of the honors English program.

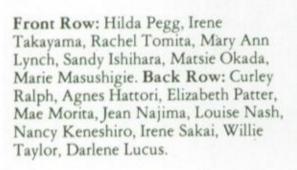

Dedicated, Hard Working, Devoted, Persistent. These are some of the many qualities possessed by a selected few. Here at Gardena we have the honor of having such a person. Either directing the drill team, teaching typing classes, part-time attendence dean, or being assistant athletic director, Mrs. Ferby is a big help, not only to the students but also to the faculty.

At the start of the day, Mrs. Ferby instructs the drill team, teaching with the energy and spunk. Her next task is to teach two continuous classes of typing without absence, she then makes her way to the attendence office, counseling students with excessive absences. Added to her schedule is being the assistant athletic director.

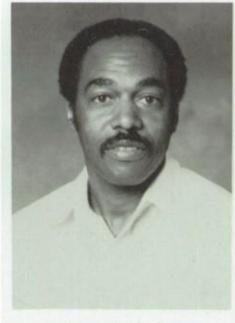

Between all these tasks she still finds time to be a senior class sponsor, helping the prom committee and advising the senior counsel. Mrs. Ferby truly deserves to be respected by all of us.

Comfortable ??? ... While Jon Woo attempts the physic problems on the board, he discovers that the best place for his foot is on Mr. Ryan's lab station.

Brain's Need Help . . . Beth Saldana and Alan Mimaki find that AP Calculus is not as easy as they thought it was going to be.

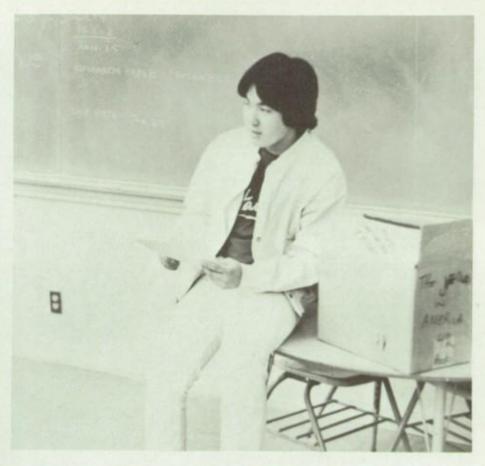

Head Coordinator of AP Program and also AP History teacher . . . Mr. Thomas Findlay teaches his class about U.S. Government and its democracy.

Rosa Yzquierdo and Rudy Gastellum look on in wonderment while trying to figure out how this strange spacecraft got in the art gallery.

Confident and Sure . . . Earl Shimabukuro delivers his speech on Jazz in Mr. Kim's 5th period AP English class.

Satisfaction . . . Anna Park and Mr. Kim both agree that her composition for AP English deserves an "A"

College Bound Students Only

1. Eligibility for honors and other special programs open to students who have received AP recognition.
2. An opportunity to take college courses and receive college credit.

These are just a few advantages that a student may receive by taking Advanced Placement courses. AP classes, which require long hours of studying and a desire to learn, are an exciting challenge to ambitious high school students interested in helping out their careers. The coordinator is Mr. Thomas Findlay, who helps the program here at Gardena High grow every which way but wrong. Keep it up!!!

Studying the Behavior of a Hamster . . . Benjie Knox, AP Biology student discovers that hamsters do not like to be bothered during lunchtime.

LEADERSHIP

As Fall Leadership came to an end, many smiles of students seemed o have lost spirit and energy.

One day, while Mrs. Tobin was valking to the moehut, she found a antern and accidentally rubbed it gainst her sweater. A white smoke ppeared in front of her. "Hello, I am Mr. Leadership," said the magical genie. "I will now grant you two vishes to thank you for freeing me rom this lantern." Mrs. Tobin hought for awhile, and then emembered all the unhappy smiles hown by many students.

First, she wished for students who vere willing to give their time and deas to brighten the school spirit. second, she wished to have her own lassroom where students can work vith her.

Mrs. Tobin's wishes were sucessfully granted. She was now the leadeship teacher. The class produced many fantastic ideas and worked very hard to keep the Dena spirit in a high position. The activities they planned were time consuming and ook a lot of dedication from each tudent. Together they decided to all themselves, "Spring Leadership."

COMMISSIONERS: Commissioner of Events and Assemblies Terance Jones, Commissioner of Elections Craig Honda, Commissioner of Athletics Renee Hampton, Commissioner of Clubs Doug Moromisato.

R. CLASS REPRESENTATIVES: Secretary Bertha Magana, Vice President Kisu Shin, Treasurer Craig Honda, Historian Chrislyn Turner, resident Tamara Jones.

Sweethearts

Happy and Shining . . . Sweetheart Princesses await for the announcement of the Queen.

AND THE WINNER IS . . . full of beauty and poise, Cindy Yoshida is crowned by COED member, Natha Higashigawa.

A TIME FOR VALENTINES ... is also a time for the Sweetheart's Dance, sponsored by Coeds. Amid a roomful of pink, red, and white balloons, the radiant court of 1985 reigned over the Sweetheart's Dance on February 22. With Senior Queen Cindy Yoshida, Junior Princess Lee Ann Goya, and Sophomore Princess Kim Taguma leading the queen's dance, many Mohicans abandoned their jeans to dress up and be "Lost in Love" at the Ken Nakaoka Community Center. Dancing to the music of Cool Patrol, everyone had a "sweet" time!

Colorful Balloons and streamers decorated the entrance of the Community Center.

OUT FOR A BREAK . . . Charlane Abe and Stacy Ozawa take time out from the dance floor for a quick drink of punch.

LOST IN LOVE . . . couples dance cheek-to-cheek, courtesy of C.P. Productions.

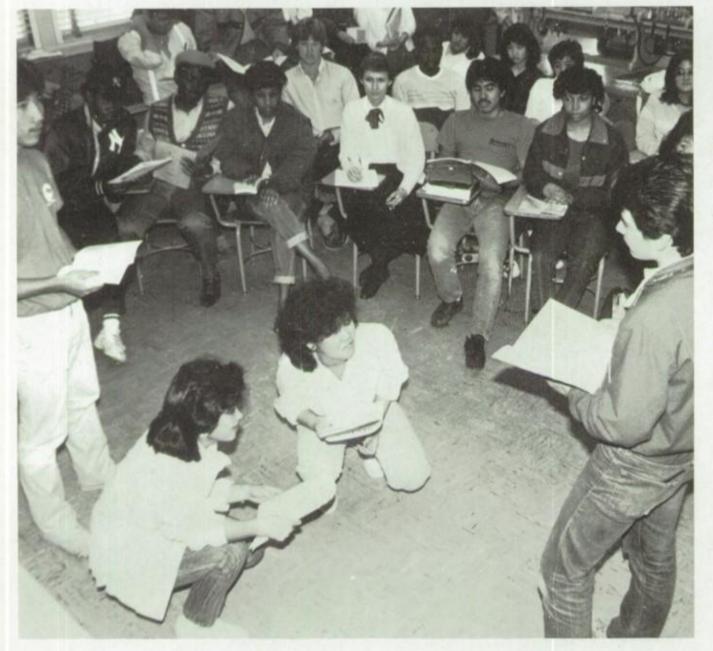

The Awesome three-some . . . Keith Taylor, Neal Nakao, & Terri Chun design a duplicate of the Shakespeare Globe Theatre for the Humanities spring production.

Richard III??? . . . No, it's Richard Fujio incognito preparing for a dress rehearsal.

HUMANITIES

Humanities from a different perspective ... Learning the Elizabethan Language was a challenge and a tremendous obstacle to overcome for a majority of the class.

HUMAN-TIES

THE ARTS ... whether it's a ballet, abstract art, or Shakespeare, the humanities class has not only studied it, but involved all 52 students in each project. Engaging in ballet may seem a bit crazy, but it is the only way to fully understand the hard work a professional dancer must endure.

Leading this group of enthusiastic students are two energy-packed and experienced teachers - otherwise known as Mrs. Paddor and Mr. Cook. Throughout the years, these two teachers have seen students come and go. But they can be sure of one thing before they leave; each one who leaves the humanities class is left with a special awareness and appreciation of real art and the true meanig of hard work and dedication.

After a long walk from DD5 . . . Mr. Boyd Cook strains as he carries the Royal Shakespearean Theatre to the Social Hall.

Taking a break . . . Mauricio Guitierrez catches some sun after a vigorous day in humanities.

WHAT AN EXPERIENCE!!!

Creating, building and observing . . . the humanities students build beautiful and artistic sculptures with the help of some "trolls."

"Kabuki for a spring production?? . . . What do you guys think?" as Mrs. Paddor asks for the class opinion.

The Social Hall in disguise . . . hay lofts, streamers, and balloons created the country atmosphere for the Sadie Hawkins Dance.

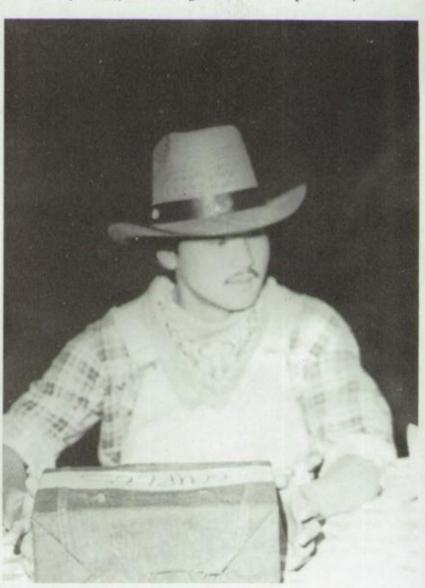

THE HOEDOWI

What? Hicks and hillbillies Gardena High? Well, just for th one special night ... these count couples attended the annual Sad Hawkins Dance organized b Squires. When bales of hay were ca ried into the Social Hall, tl hoedown was on its way.

Dressed in mostly country attir everyone had a righteous time ar danced to the music provided h Kevin Thompson. Given the oppo tunity to get hitched, many couple entered the marriage booth and tie the knot. But if they found the maried life wasn't for them, they go unhitched in the divorce booth. Ho convenient! Though the Sadi Hawkins Dance lasted only a fe hours, everyone captured t memories at Gardena High's annua hoedown.

Beaming with smiles . . . a very satisfied cowboy Cabbage Patch doll enters the dance with his two dates Sheri Osato and Tamara Jones.

Lending a hand . . . Key Club member Alan Mimaki helps out the Squires by collecting bids for "Couples Only."

ride to be . . . Anna Kawahara anxiously awaits her turn ne marriage booth.

Date stealing . . . David Haley tries to maneuver Julie Sasaki away from her date, but the photographers caught him in the act.

A very happy bunch . . . the Squires, hosts of the Sadie Hawkins Dance, find time out of their busy schedule to pose for one last picture.

HAWK

FOOTBALL BOOSTER CLUB

"He was a good man and we're going to miss him . . ." says Coach Dale Hirayama to Varsity player Mauricio Gutierrez.

"Boy, that was some punch, wasn't it Mike?" e claims Varsity Coach Bill Partridge to BEE Coa Mike Sakurai.

Love, support, and encouragement this is what the Booster Club all about. It is mainly made up parents of the Varsity and B footb players, who help the football tear purchase new and better equipment They also give the G.H.S. players football banquet at the end of the season.

No, the money for all this does come out of the parent's pocked. That would be crazy! They has fund-raisers, receive donations from the community, and hold various of the supportive parents we also involved in the spelling of LOVE GARDENA MOHICAN bumper stickers.

RDENA BOOSTER CLUB: James Hill, Robert Legington, Juanita Cullen-Austin (Secretary), Joyce Smith (Vice President), Willie ard, Willie C. Brown (President), Douglas Kamon.

LEARNING IN A SPECIAL WAY

DHH, or the Deaf and Hard of Hearing program provides students with many opportunities to participate in school activities and academic programs on the school campus. The students in the program are taught in a special way. Such methods may be lip reading or sign language. The teachers in DHH care and are willing to provide their professional skills to educate the students as much as possible. This program helps Gardena High School to be an educational school for all types of young adults.

Students, Mariling Croucier and Pat Diaz, learn as they watch Mr. Brooke explain math techniques.

ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

Busy at work . . . Mrs. Motoyasu and Mrs. Mildner teach their ESL students by a way of using diagrams.

Foreign students who attend Gardena High School enroll in the ESL program. This program teaches students English, and prepares them for three proficiency exams: the Sharp, Write, and Topics. The following teachers, Mrs. Motoyasu, Mrs. Mildner, and Mrs. Camarero, spend each day providing students with help and guidance for their future goals in our society. A year of ESL is an experience in which the teacher and student can learn about each other's culture.

WANTED: Students, no experience necessary

AT THE END OF A LONG DAY ... Laox employee, Jeff Sato, proudly thumbs through his many sales receipts.

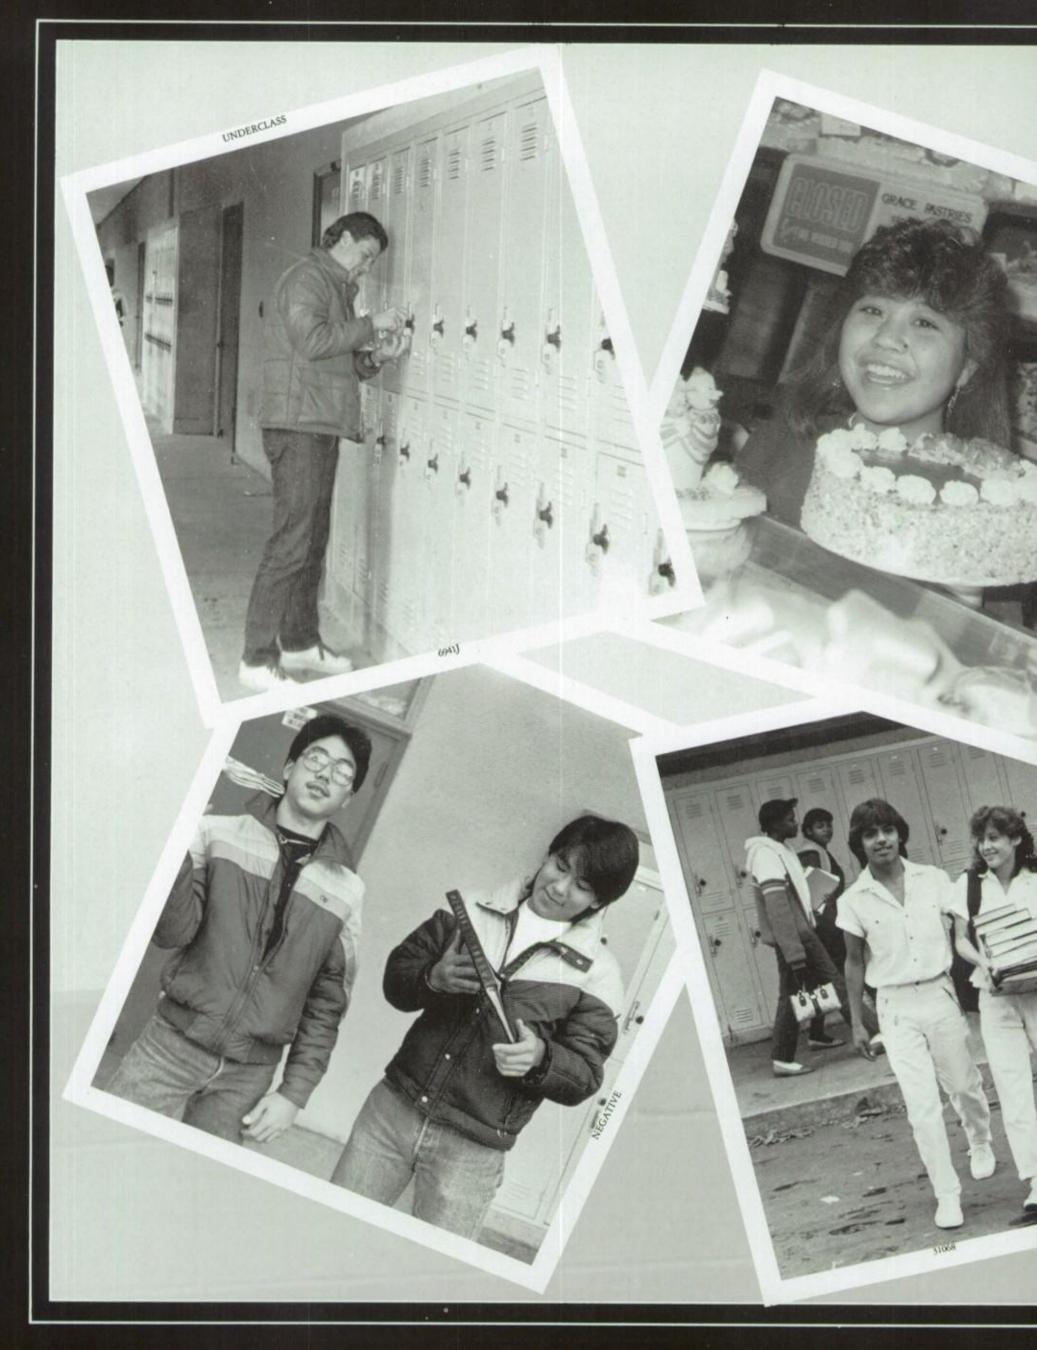

QUEEN OF TACO BELL . . . Sheri Ingram displays her talent at making tacos and burritos.

rop/work experience

Regional Occupation Program and Work Experience are designed to help students develop skills on the job. In order for a student to be in this program, he or she must be willing to work at a regular job outside of school for a required number of hours every week. The jobs are usually located in Gardena or the local surrounding area. The placements that are available include a wide variety such as fast-food chains, clothing stores, supermarkets, clerical work, gasoline stations, and many more. With support and dedication from Mr. Crawford and Mr. Hirayama, ROP and Work Experience offer great training for Gardena High students.

DOIN' IT DENA STYLE . . . Camilla Williams and Julie Smith put in several hours of work, cutting and styling mannequins' hair for ROP class.

Knights and Las Laureas "PRIDE, HONOR, DEDICATION, & SERVICE."

These are the foundations for the Knights and Las Laureas honor's club. Their function is to usher the main activities and assemblies which are held at school. These two clubs are the official hosts and hostesses of Gardena High. They are responsible for the annual Silver Bells Dance which has been very successful in the past years and has now become part of the school tradition. The two clubs have had a long history of honor and dedication which seems to be growing stronger and stronger every year.

Important business? . . . DeMorris Walker, Alan Mimaki, Mr. Patridge, and Lance Maeda pause from their discussion.

At the usual hang-out . . . Key Club members can always be found between the D buildings, whether it is eating, talking, or just "messing around."

KEY CLUB

In their gold-colored jackets, the Key Club members take pride in their prestigious reputation of helping our community. Working handin-hand with the Gardena Valley Kiwanis Club, Key Club has earned numerous awards in both district and international levels. Perhaps they are best known for their original fund raiser—a see-saw-a-thon! Led by fall President Alan Mimaki and Vice President Lance Maeda, Key Club certainly has the spark of life that keeps it a shining star — reflecting credit on our school!!!

"Togetherness is what Coeds are all about." say fellow club members Diane Sakamoto, Jean Nakata, Traci Kita, Lance Matsumoto, Dawna Saito, and Joy Iwamizu.

Lee Tonai shows Darlene Hataye and Karen Faira the importance of caring.

During lunch, April Nishioka and Joni Suzuki ask Nathan Higashigawa, "Did finals hit you that hard?"

COED CORNER

Caring — The members of Coeds are caring, for they take the time to visit convalescent homes and help clean up our school campus.

Outgoing — These guys and girls are all outgoing and are totally fun to be around!

E nergetic — They are also energetic because they hike up in the local montains to pick mistletoe for their annual mistletoe sale during Christmas time. They give students an opportunity to send their harvest to someone special in their lives.

Dedicated — Coeds is also a very dedicated club because they hold their annual Sweetheart's Dance in February and also their annual spaghetti dinner. With the help of their sponsor, Ms. Porter, both events are successful year after year.

S pecial — All in all, Coeds is just a really special club!!!

SQUIRE INQUIRE

Filled with never-ending energy and smiles, Squire members seem to be rays of sunlight to our school. They can be seen in the parking lot at our football games, back-to-school night, and Sadie Hawkins dance; working hard but having fun no matter what job they are assigned!

Sponsored by Ms. Christofferson and Mr. Sullivan, these dedicated members left behind the flashy blue and white sweaters to participate in their 10th Annual Volleyball Marathon where there is always a lot of enthusiam and action! Don't forget their delicious teriyaki dinner—you'll be sure to get "service with a smile!"

Smiling at an attractive crowd . . . President Charlane Abe leads the Squires in their weekly meeting.

Buddies forever . . . Kathy Hirakawa, Scott Aoyagi, Charlene Abe, and Kevin Thompson pose to capture a precious memory.

INSIDE INTERACT

One Big Happy Family is what Interacters consider themselves. These friendly, cheerful, dedicated students spend much of their time serving the community and school ... and have a great time at it.

Often seen in powder blue jackets, these guys and girls work at Special Olympics, dances for the handicapped, and visit convalescent homes. They also hold an Annual 24 hour Basketball Marathon in order to raise and donate money for various charities.

Under their school sponsor, Cheryl Nakata, and sponsor Rotary International, these Interact members continue to uphold and fulfill their motto, "Service Above Self."

Together . . . Interclub Council

Interclub Council is composed of representatives from various clubs on campus. They meet in leadership class everyday. The Council plans such interclub projects as The International Winter Food Fair, interclub caroling, and candy sales. They also manage to arrange Know-A-Club Week once each semester. The members of the Council strive for unity between the school clubs. They hope to build a strong and peaceful bond between all.

Anxiously awaiting the meeting to begin, the KCC members gobble down their lunches.

Every Thursday in room GG7, the Korean Culture Club meets to discuss their upcoming events.

Under President Anna Park and sponsor Mr. Kim, the KCC is working on getting scholarships for its members. They also get together with other Korean clubs from different schools to meet and make new friends.

The KCC takes pride in their heritage and background, and always show new Korean arrivals that they're welcome in America.

TO-GA!!

The main goals for Latin Club are to promote the interests and appreciation of the Latin language and Roman civilization, and also to establish good fellowship among its members.

The Latin Convention, held annually at different schools, brings together members from all over California, where they meet and compete in many different activities. Under the leadership and guidance of Mrs. Wallace, they have bake sales and other fund raisers to ease the cost of their conventions.

Bon Jour! The French Club can help you learn French words and many other interesting things from their cultural field trips. With the leadership of president Olga Ceron, this exciting club writes to pen pals in France, which helps them to polish their French conversation skills; receiving letters in return from these French students is really fun, too.

Meeting on Thursdays, the French Club learns how to play French games and they learn more about the civilization than they would in a regular classroom study.

It is obvious that the French Club is rich in culture and education; but it is also full of fun and excitement!

Olga Ceron, Dora Garcia, Vaglia Vela and Debbie Lahm are just some of the few dedicated members of French Club.

Vinning Smiles ... NFL's proud members display trophies they have won in past ompetitions.

If you happen to walk by room F7 anytime, you're likely to see people talking loudly and gesturing wildly. If you're wondering who these people are, they're the hard working members of Gardena's National Forensics League.

As Gardena's NFL continues to dominate the Western Bay Forensics League by winning the Chapter of the Year Award for seven consecutive years, Mrs. Paddor still persists to work hard towards yet another impressive chapter award. They meet as any ordinary class with one exception. They get to do what no other class can do and that's talk, talk, talk. BAND BAND BAND

"Hey, nobody told me they have a band too," a puzzled Leonard Tarver points out.

Gardena High's Band and Drill Team displays their Dena Spirit at the Carson football game.

Marching in their flashy green and white uniforms, Gardena's Band, Majorettes and Tall Flags proudly "strut their stuff" and show how hard work, dedication and long hours of practice pay off. Every year, with Dena pride glowing in their faces, they march in the Carson parade and then later on to Amestoy Elementary School where they try to promote school music and interest prospective members. Led by sponsor Lorenzo Johnson, the band performs during every half-time of our football games and they also dazzle audiences with their spring musicals.

The act that steals the show ... Dena's awesome drummers compose a rhythm to liven up the crowd during half time.

Have a great summer working out there real hard a pring up your trignometry grade! Take late a care

EDITOR'S NOTE:

As the year comes to an end, I can't begin to thank everyone.

This yearbook was made up of many different things ... love, sadness, trust. Being the Yearbook Editor was a special privilege for me ... one that made my senior year at Gardena High School. I will remember only the good times we've shared and will treasure them forever. All the words in the dictionary can't describe the joy I feel in my heart. Remember that I love you all and that dreams can always come true . . .

THANK YOU:

Mr. Eddy . . . for your understanding and cooperation through all the deadlines. I was indeed lucky to have a Taylor Representative such as you!

Mr. Kim . . . for all the love, kindness, support, and good advice you showed us at a time of need. Your generosity will always be remembered by all of us. Thank you again . . . we love you!

Mrs. C. McDaniel . . . for your support and understanding throughout the school year.

Mr. Gentry Akens . . . for the wonderful designs and ideas you've shown us. Thank you for all the time and effort that you gave us. Good luck in all that you do.

Mrs. Inouye and Chris . . . for typing up all the advertisement sheets. Your kindness made the job so much easier!

Mrs. Hall . . . for your guidance, common sense, and reliability. Your help was an immeasurable asset in the Year-book Production.

Mr. Wooden . . . for giving me the boost to continue. You made me realize that nothing is impossible. *

COEDS . . . in making my Senior Year the best. Thank you for understanding. You guys are great!!

Yearbook Staff '85 . . . we did it!!

Hiroko Yoshida, Val Ige, Terry Yamamoto, and Staff of '84 . . . for all the advice and long talks . . . thank you so much for caring.

Mom, Dad, and Kumie . . . for all the support, love and tolerance you showed the whole year. Your help and concern can never be measured. I love you!!!

Howard, Cindy Y., Rich... It's over!!! Love you!! Cindy Hiraoka... Congratulations Miss Editor '86!!

God Bless enve you all michele-t.

MANY THANKS FROM HOWARD NAKASE...

There are so many things I would like to say and so many people I would like to thank, that this one page would not be able to hold it all. The three years that I've been here I've learned so many things and made so many friends that I wish I didn't have to leave it all. Though I am glad that I am finally leaving this school by graduating from it, rather than other certain unwanted ways, I am sad that I will have to depart from all my good friends and teachers. The memories that I have shared with all my friends will never be forgotten and cherished in my heart forever. By being head photographer, I was able to take pictures that would help remind us all of the special and memorable times that we've spent here. Here I present to you, with the effort and help of many others, the 1985 EL ARADOR YEAR-BOOK. This is our present to you. Before this message drags on too long, I would like to thank and recognize the following people for their help and support:

Craig Iwata for always being there when I needed you. Guess what buddy, you're Head Photographer and Stadium Manager next year.

Tina Kato for cheering me up on those down days.

To all the teachers that I've had for the past three years because they always let me out when I needed to take pictures during class.

To my counselor, Mrs. Coffelt, for all the guidance and support she gave me.

To my guidance teacher and coach, Mr. Hirayama, for the career guidance and goal deciding wisdom that he gave me.

To my best friend Richard Fujio for all the enthusiasm, encouragment, and wisdom that he gave me.

Glenn Wong for being the great boss that you are and the second father to me. I'll miss you when I head for college. You're the best in your field, no doubt about it.

To my family for all the support and love that you've given me and my niece, Justine Mika, for the joy and happiness that you bring me.

Colleen Tani, Darryl Noda, Alan Hamada, Karen Watanabe, Eric Oshiro, and all the other church counselors that supported me and shared their love with me.

God Bless you all and may peace always be with you. Love, Howard

ADVERTISEMENTS

It seems like only yesterday when you accepted us into Las Laureas. And now you are leaving us with many fond memories of the times that we have spent together. Memories filled with laughter, love and kindness.

No one will ever know about the bond of love and friendship that we have shared. May you carry this in your heart as you go out into the world to fulfill that certain dream. We wish you all the best of luck, and we would like you to know that from the bottom of our hearts "we will miss you very much!"

With Love from Your Successors, Stacy, Hyon, Misun, Paula, Janice, Haunani, Sheila "Class of '85"
The Best of Luck!

April,

Since I met you, five years ago, you have filled my life with happiness, love, and security. In the past year, we have been growing and building on our relationship. Like a sister, you took me in when I was feeling down. It was during these times that I realized what a good friend I found in you. So, it is my wish that you are successful in all you do in the years to come. If you don't remember anything else about me, please remember that I LOVE YOU.

Love, "Double D"

Dear Graduating Coeds . . .

We've grown, shared and learned to care for one another and as we look back on our high school days, we'll always remember the special memories you have given us. Your love and kindness will be cherished and never forgotten and the times we've shared can never be replaced. Remember to keep dreaming dreams and always strive for the best because each and everyone of you deserve nothing less. We LOVE you all very much and we'll miss ya a lot!!!

Take care and best of luck to you all!!!
